NEW BUSINESS: Dept. JVC Joe Hutchinson presented a talk about an effort to restore a CW monument in Peoria that was originally dedicated in 1866 and removed in 1962. After some discussion and amendments, an amended motion was made, seconded and passed to donate $500 to this restoration. Bro. Hutchinson said the forms were in the process of being completed and should be in the mail next week. Bro. Gene Walker presented an update to the CW marker in Vermont, Fulton Co. Ill. Dept. Sec. Aarli made a motion to reimburse DC Bigwood for the new DC Badge and frame for the Dept. Charter. Action on this motion was tied to the following proposal submitted by SVC Reineke: SVC Reineke presented a motion to reimburse him for the production of new PDC badges (Initial sample) at the cost of $634.99 which included two newly designed PDC Badges. This part was approved. Second part of this discussion was presented that the Dept. purchase these new PDC badges for all living Dept. of Illinois PDC's at a cost of $150 per badge for a total of $1950.

The motion was amended to not pay the amount from the Dept. treasury but allow the living past Ill. PDC's the option to purchase one out of their own pocket. This amended motion was seconded and past. PDC Westlake was presented one which he agreed to pay for. The other new PDC Badge was presented to outgoing DC Bigwood He was willing to pay the $150. He suggested that we look into someone or someplace to see what it would cost to restore the flag. A motion was made, seconded and passed to reimburse Bro. Reineke the $82.50 that he paid to purchase it off of Ebay.

Bro. Franklin found a panoramic framed photo of members of the GAR Department Encampment when the meeting was held in Peoria in 1912. He presented the photo to Dept.
