A lengthy discussion was held in regards to voting delegates from our Camps to the Dept. Encampment and if this follows Nat'l. policy. Dept. Sec. Aarli reported that he received a query on this matter prior to this Encampment with fears that one Camp could "stuff the ballot" to sway the vote one way or other. Nat'l. Bylaws does state that Camps elect delegates and alternates to attend a Dept. Encampment the same as Dept.'s do to attend Nat'l.

Encampments. Nothing is sited in our Dept. Bylaws on the matter of Camp Delegates. Bro. Aarli reported that in the past seven years he has attended Dept. Encampments, voting has always been done enmass from all those who were in attendance which could pose a violation to Nat'l. bylaws. Bro. Aarli volunteered to put together a proposal in the form of a bylaw addition to cover this process. In the mean time Chap. Jerry moved and Bro. Jim Lyon seconded to continue with past practice on voting. Motion passed.

Bro. Bill Johnson gave a brief update on IRS EIN numbers.
